WAR CHEST IS REPLENISHED

British House of Commons Votes New Credit of $1,250,000,000

NOT READY FOR PEACE

Members of House Told There is no Present Prospects of Bringing War to a Conclusion.

London, Sept. 16—A credit of $1,-250,000,000, asked for by Premier Asquith to carry on the war to the middle of November, was formally voted by the House of Commons last night. The credit is the seventh voted since the war began and brings the total up to $6,310,000,000.

When a motion for adjournment was made Under Foreign Secretary Cecil stated that Germany had made no peace proposals nor could he imagine any being made at the present time which would be acceptable by the Allies.

The Premier announced that nearly 3,000,000 men had enlisted. He made this statement in reviewing the financial and military situations, so far as military exigencies permitted, but this requirement necessitated in many instances only vague references to the trend of events.

The growing expenditures for the war were emphasized by the Premier. He said the average daily cost from April 1, to the end of June was £2,-700,000 ($13,500,000); from July 1 to to 17, £3,000,000; from July 18 to September 11, £3,500,000. Thus the total for this period in round figures is £500,000,000. There has been repaid £50,000,000 to the Bank of England, £30,000,000 has been lent to foreign governments and £28,000,000 lent to the Dominions.

Mr. Asquith estimated that the weekly gross expenditure henceforth would not exceed £35,000,000. It was his opinion that the new vote would carry the country through to the third week of November.

Regarding the work of the munitions department the Premier said all that was now necessary to complete this great and necessary task was an adequate supply of labor, unskilled quite as much as skilled. There was no field wherein women could do more useful work. The Minister of Munitions had established 20 shell factories and 18 more were in course of construction. In all 715 controlled establishments were under the department. In these factories, he said, 880,-000 workmen were now employed and the country had vastly exceeded any standard dreamed of before the war.

SCARCITY OF AUTO TIRES

Neutral Contries in Europe Suffer Because of War

Washington, Sept. 16—Serious shortage of automobile tires in the neutral countries of Europe, usually supplied by American manufacturers, has followed restriction of rubber exports from the United States. Advices received yesterday by the State Department said business in Holland Sweden, Norway and Denmark was suffering on account of lack of tires.

under an agreement between the British government and American manufacturers, no rubber manufactures are allowed to go to any European country except through Great Britain , the Americans having entered into the compact to secure supplies of raw rubber from the British countries in Europe, forced to do all their buying through British dealers, have encountered increased prices, and in many cases a total lack of supply.

Diplomatic representatives of the United States in Holland and Scandinavian countries have brought the matter to the attention of the State Department, but the manufacturers here are not complaining, as they have no difficulty in disposing of their entire output through Great Britain where a large part of the supply is used for war purposes.

GERMAN SPY COLLEGE

"Spies are a domestic product in Germany," writes a contributor to the Paris Figaro, "and the government assists in developing the innate properties of the seed in order to bring out a satisfactory crop. It raises its spy-ebryo in hothouses, until they attain such perfection as we have seen demonstrated on so many recent occasions. There are in Germany special colleges for training spies, according to the Warsaw Gazette, which has published some very interesting details on the subject.

The course of instruction comprises an intimate study of the armies and military resources in general of foreign countries on which Germany may have some designs. Scholars are procured through advertisements. One such appeared some time ago in a Berlin newspaper and read as follows: 'Several vacancies open for intelligent and absolutely reliable persons. Indispensable to be of German birth and have knowledge of the French, Russian and English languages.'

The scholars at the spy college spend all their energies on getting familiar with the defensive and mobilization systems of the European powers. They must acquaint themwith the disposition of the troops in garrison and forts, the means of transportation by land and sea, the location of bridges and a great many other odds and ends of strategic importance

At the end of the course the scholars are taught an elaborate cipher code in which to communicate and report their observations.

ENTER PECULIAR PACT

Couple Agree to Live Together During Certain Periods.

New York, Sept., 16—An agreement between John W. German and his wife, Lillian M. German to live together "off and on," came to light yesterday in habeas corpus proceedings before Supreme Court Justice Finch, He directed Mrs. German to appear in court and produce Robert W. German, their 6 year old boy.

German explained in his petition for the custody of Robert that he and his wife entered into an agreement to marry in January, 1907, at Annapolis, Md., but not to live together until the following June. They carried out this agreement, and in June, 1907, when they started housekeeping, made a further agreement to live together until the summer of 1912.

Soon after marriage German says his wife exhibited a violent temper and exercised it on him "in spitfire fashion." When the summer of 1912 was reached Mrs. German said she wanted to become an actress. German says she took their two children from his home without asking support and started out to begin her stage career.

Four days later he asserts she returned home and they agreed to try married life again until March, 1913, When this date was reached they again parted.

A week after this separation they entered into another agreement to live together until May, 1913, They separated voluntarily in May, 1913, and have continued to live apart.

ARTISTS GUARD CATHEDRAL

Form a Corps, With Architects, to Protect St. Paul's

London, Sept., 16—An association of architects and art craftsmen now does duty in protecting St. Paul's Cathedral, presumably in case of incendiary bombs being dropped upon it by Zeppelins.

These men, who include many well-known architects, serve in addition to the regular watchmen. Sand boxes and shovels for putting out fires are placed in convenient corners, just as they are in the museums and art galleries of London.

So far, the Zeppelins have destroyed nothing of importance in the way of art or architecture in England.

SLAUGHTER OF ARMENIANS

Turks Renew Butchery For Purpose of Exterminating Them

FRIGHTFUL SCENES.

Women Ill-Treated or Sold Into Slavery and Men and Boys Massacred—Others Driven to Desert.

Constantinople, Sept. 16—The Turks have resumed their methodical extermination of Armenians in all the provinces of the empire.

Frightful scenes are being enacted according to reports brought here. Women are being outraged or sold into slavery; men and boys are being massacred, and whole communities driven off into the desert countries

Nearly 200,00 Armenian villagers between Yeni Chedir and Afion- Karahissar, in Asia Minor, have abandoned their homes and are fleeing to the mountains. They are pursued by irregular bands, who are shooting down stragglers and carrying off women who fall exhausted by the roadside.

In some villages the local authorities have presided in person at horrible scenes of massacre, according to private advices from the interior. The women and children in some instances were divided among civil and military officers, who were given carte blanche in their treatment of the helpless Armenians. Robust boys have been sold into service in private families.

The Young Turks ordered the deportation to the interior of all the Armenian inhabitants of Smyrna, but Rarmey Bey, the local Vali, who since the beginning of the war has protected French, English, and other Europeans within his jurisdiction, refused to execute the order. He has just arrived in Constantinople to explain his action to the war office.

La Tanine, official organ of the Young Turk party, announces in an editorial that Turkey will not be safe until the Armenians either are exterminated or forced to accept the Mohammedan religion. The Armenians are denounced as traitors and accused of aiding Turkey's enemies.

Mgr. Dolci, the papal nuncio to Constantinople has renewed his appeals to the sublime porte to end the prosecution of the Armenians. It is reported that he acted under instructions from Pope Benedict. Thus far these appeals from home had little

BLAMES GERMANS.

London, Sept. 16—The Daily News says it was throught German treachery that the great Russian ammunition factory at Okhta, a suburb of Perograd, ws blown to pieces some months ago. Okkhta was the Russian Woolwich—the only big gun munition factory in Russia.

"This had a determining influence on the Russian military situation," the Daily News says, "as the allies had to come to the rescue by the circuitous Archangel route.

"Thousands of workmen were killed and the destruction of the plant caussed such an extreme dearth of ammunition that nothing could be done against Von Mackensen's artillery.

"Russia, crippled, had to fight for time and the striking power of France and Great Britian was checked. All thought of the great spring offensive had to be given up and the energies of the allies bent to supplying Russia with munitions, which suddenly had become to her a matter of life and death."

DWARFED TEUTON STATES

Map Pictures Russia As Dominating Central Europe.

In a bookshop window in Iemberg, the Galician capital, is displayed a Russian war map of Europe, which explains Russian hopes and ambitions better than long-winded discussions. This map, designed during the war and marked "Approved by the War Censor," represents a victorious Russia as embracing Galicia, the Bukowina, Northern Hungary, East Prussia, and Silesia.

The Russian Empire, the dream of which is pictured in tangible form on the map, made the Czar the possessor of the Dardanelles, Serbia, Bulgaria and Montenegro, together with other smaller Slav countries, to be incorporated as dependencies.

The map is divided into three different parts, namely, "purely Russian territory," "Northern Slav Confederacy" and "Southern Slav Confederacy."

The "exact" border of "purely Russian territory" was to reach as far as the San and Wisloka rivers and the sources of the Dunajec, then was to cross the Carpathians and run along the watershed separating the Wag from the Western Theiss tributaries, The Southern border was to be formed by the Upper Theiss as far as the town of Tokay, the Hugarian eastern border by the sources of the Visco, an affluent of the Theiss.

This "Purely Russian territory" was to be united indivisibly and "eternally" with the "Greater Russia," namely, Russia proper. It was to embrace Poland, under Russian rule, and in Galicia the Tarnow and Cracow governments, and was to form a unit with Russian Poland, Eastern Prussia and Prussian Silesia.

The "Northern Slav Confederacy" was to consist of parts of Austria, Silesia, Moravia, Bohemia and the north western districts—all to be under the Russian protectorate.

Included in the "Southern Slav Confederacy" were to be Serbia, Croatia, Slavonia and Southern Hungary, together with Bulgaria and Montenegro— also under the Russian protectorate.

Germany, Austria and Hungary were to be independent "dwarf states" cut off from the sea.

FRENCH SET U-BOAT TRAPS

Marine Ministry Announces Efficient Guard Against Submarines.

Paris, Sept., 16—The Ministry of Marine, announced today that measures had been taken which would enable the navy to deal with German submarines.

The official statement dealing with the subject was prompted by the activity of submarines off the coast of France, resulting in the sinking of several steamships within a few days. The Ministry says there is no reason for alarm at the operations of submarines near the mouths of the Gironde and the Loire.

"All necessary precautions were taken long ago against the aggressions of German submarines," the statement says. "The present naval force near the mouths of the Giróde and Loire will be reinforced, if necessary, but the measures taken against them in the English Channel are so efficacious that they may be expected to be sufficient, and only occasional isolated aggressions are possible.

TESTIMONY IN ARABIC CASE

Has Been Sent to Berlin to be Presented by Ambassador Gerard

BERNSTORFF SERENE.

German Representative Declares All Differencies Will be Settled as Early as Possible.

Berlin, Sept. 16—In the German Government's explanaton of the Hesperian case, Germania sees the way made clear for "President Wilson's ultimate position regarding the German note concerning justification for the sinking of the Arabic." The newspaper declared that the British press must give up its hopes of serious differences between Berlin and Washington. It praises President Wilson for having refused to be influenced by British reports of a new menace to German-American relations, which had just been guided into a more peaceful channel, and adds:

"The President's cool self containment is now justified. The British tissue of lies is at last torn to pieces and if anything remains of the entire question of responsibility for the misfortune it probably will rest immediately, as we suspected, on one of Britain's excellent anchored mines"

New York, Sept. 16—Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, returned to New York yesterday and said he did not expect any developments in the Arabic controversy for at least two weeks. He said he believed that in a forthnight the questions in dispute would have been settled to the satisfaction of both the United States and of Germany.

Washington, Sept. 16—Ambassador Gerard has been instructed to present to the German Foreign Office a summarw of the evidence gathered by the United States Government and accepted here as conclusive proof that the White Star liner Arabic was torpedoed without warning, causing the loss of two Americans.

Secretary Lansing in making this announcement made it clear that no representations or expression of opinion by the American Government had been made in the communication. The viewpoint of the United States, based on the evidence in the Arabic case and its position on the principles involved, were stated informally to Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, who communicated later with the German Foreign Office.

The outcome of these two steps—examination by the German Foreign Office of the evidence and receipt by Berlin officials of Ambassador Bernstorff's suggestion—is awaited before the next move in the situation is determined.

The general expectation is that several days, possibly two weeks, will elapse before the decision of the German Government is made known.

No word had been received at the State Department concerning published reports of a chase of the American liner St. Paul by a German submarine. It was said at the Department that if the St. Paul was attempting to escape after having been warned an attack on her might have been justified. In the absence of details, department officials were not disposed to comment on the case.

TAKES BULLET FROM HEART

Radiographic Compass Aids French Surgeon in Wonderful Feat

Paris, Sept., 16—Means by which he extracted a shrapnel bullet from the right auricle of a French soldier's heart were described to the Academy of Medicine Tuesday night by Dr. Charles Infroit. This surgical feat was accomplished by the use of a radiographic compass invented by the surgeon.

This instrument enables Dr. Infroit to locate foreign bodies in the tissues with mathematical precision, and permits their extraction without injury to the neighboring organs, he told his colleagues.

FALSE BOMB SCARE

White Star Liner Lapland Sails With Five Americans.

New York, Sept., 16—The two glass beakers foud beside a hatch of the White Star liner Lapland, lying at her pier here, were yesterday learned to have contained liquid for refilling fire extinguishers, and not acid calculated to set fire to the ship, as police and private detectives believed.

The supposed bombs were hurriedly removed from the ship, taken to the police "bomb bureau', and analyzed. The analysis tended to further mystify the police, for chemists found the liquid in the beakers could not possibly cause an explosion or fire. The ship's officers were then consulted. They recognized the beakers at once. Five hundred similar ones were loaded late yesterday, and it is supposed the two found by a detective were accidentally placed by the hatch.

The Lapland sailed for Liverpool yesterday afternoon. She carried a 15,000-ton cargo consisting largely of munitions of war. Five Americans were among the 194 passengers. Their names were not made known and no passenger list was issued.

CLAIMED BY THREE WOMEN

The Heart Affairs of Murdered Judge William S. Knowles Revealed

Providence, R. I., Sept. 16—Judge Willis S. Knowles, who was slain on Labor Day, from ambush near his home, in Scituate, had been engaged to three women at the same time.

He had promised to marry Miss Mabel Bowes, 35 years old, a fashionable dressmaker, Providence; Miss Louise Bowen, 38 years old, a grandniece of the late Gen. Charles R. Brayton, the "blind boss" of Rhode Island, and Mrs. Cora E. Wardwell, employed as his housekeeper for 10 years, and the divorced wife of Harry A. Wardwell, of East Cambridge, Mass.

The heart affairs of the murdered judge have overshadowed, for the time being, the mystery of his death in a lonely stretch of roadway within hailing distance of his summer home, while on his way to open court, His three fiancees were dumbfounded to hear of rivals. Each supposed she was the only one claiming his affections. They say he told them so. Each believed him. His death was a shock to them, but his duplicity hurt them even more. They cannot account for it, they say.

STRIKES SHUTS PLANT

1,500 of 5,000 U. S. Cartridge Company Employes Out.

Lowell, Mass., Sept., 16 — Labor troubles at the plant of the United States Cartridge Company here resulted yesterday in the closing of all but the machine and sheet steel departments. Of the 5,000 employes only 500 were left at their work. Some 3,500 went on strike and 1,000 others were sent out by the management until further notice.

It was said at the company's office that most of the strikers were unskkilled help.

The men demand an increase of 15 per cent. in wages, an eight-hour working day and the abolishment of nightwork on Sundays. The women demand an eight-hour day also and a wage increase of 20 per cent. The strikers are not organized, but application has been made by them for a charter from the American Federation of Labor.

Recently the company has been employing 5,000 operatives in three shifts, seven days a week. It is understood that large orders have been received from the Entente Allies.

UNITED STATES AND AUSTRIA

IS AWAITING REPORT

Belief That Whole Situation Will Be Adjusted Satisfactorily to Both Countries.

Vienna, Sept. 16—"Austria has not interferred, and will not interfere with internal affairs in America. We are too busy with European affairs to bother with strikes in the United States. But whatever our inquiry shows, we shall consider the request for Ambassador Dumba's recall purely personal. It can not disturb friendly relations between the two countries is the statement attributed to a high official.

Whether a successor will be named at Washington and how soon such an appointment may be made has not been determined. The foreign office apparently has not yet recovered from the first feeling of surprise. Dumba was regarded highly here and officials believed that he stood extremely well at Washington.

"We are awaiting Ambassador Dumba's report," continued the foreign office official. 'Until we hear from him we shall take no steps. Before judging the case we must hear from our own representative. We hope and firmly believe that the whole situation will be adjusted without the least interference with the cordial relations now existing between the two countries."

In vew of his statement that the request for the recall of Dumba was purely personal, the official was asced if the question involved did not also concern the attitude of the Austrian government toward the instigating of strikes in America.

"We have too much to think about on this side of the ocean, without undertaking to direct affairs on the other side," was the emphatic reply.

"Just now we are awaiting a report from Ambassador Dumba," he continued. "There is no quick way of use of the wireless to Berlin. It is possible we may be forced to await communication, excepting the limited a report by mail. The one thing that may be said, however, is that your Ambassador Penfield discharged a delicate duty with the greatest tact."

FINDS SISTER IS SUICIDE

Awful Discovery Made When Young Married Woman Comes Home.

Georgetown, Del., Sept., 16—Tired of living and grieving about gossip that had connected her name with others, Mamie Brittingham, a 19 year old girl, killed herself in a most gruesome fashion yesterday when she propped a double barreled gun in the corner of the front room of her sister's home, and then, stooping over it, fired the gun with a stick, shooting both loads into her body, The girl was alone at the time, and it was some time afterward when her sister, Mrs. Harvey Hitchens, returned and found the body.

The girl left a note saying that she was tired of life and that her sister had been cross with her. She asked to have a church burial. She was a daughter of a respectable farmer, and seemed in a jolly mood yesterday morning during her work at the canning factory.

DAY OF ATONEMENT

Yom Kippur, Greatest of Hebrew Festivals, Begins Tomorrow Evening.

Yom Kippur, or Day of Atonement—the greatest of the Hebrew festivals—begins tomorrow evening, with religious services in all temples and synagogues, and the following day—Saturday—the entire day will be devoted to religious services by those of that faith. The ritual of the day is public and congregational, but its significance is personal. Services will be conducted in the Washington street synagogue by Rabbi Wise, of Cincinnati.

The day brings the people together, because they share the limitations of human nature and because they are equally aware of the fact that our careers, whatever they may be to others, satisfy or dissatisfy ourselves in accordance with our moral or immoral interests. This Holy Day gives opportunity for earnest thought on our inner life. The difficulties men encounter in the course of a busy year may prove, after self-examination, to be not "decrees" of God, but instances of their shortcomings.

The reminiscences of centuries cling to this days and make its lessons suggestive and impressive. In ancient times priestly solemnities invested it with dignity and the persecutions of later times gave it pathos and intense fervor. It is always a salutary experience to face the facts of life as they are, to realize that there are illusions and delusions, to bring home to ourselves the truth that we work under the limitations of mind heart and will. Men who feel their responsibilities will neither ignore this reminder nor evade the appeal. They will frankly avow the shortcomings of their common human nature in the midst of their fellowmen.

The ritual of the day expresses openness, sympathy and a desire to attain to a moral will. And so do the customs of the day. Fasting is meant as discipline of self-control, the sponsor of many virtues.

One phase of the ritual of the day is the thought and memory of the dead. Each man thinks of the void that has come into his career through the loss of kindred and of the obligations he has because of it.

The Day of Atonement is a day for inner peace, and accordingly, the Jews, re-assert their loyalty to peace for themselves and for mankind.

MOTHER SEES CHILD KILLED

Crowd of Women Threatens Motorman Whose Car Hits Boy.

New York, Sept. 16—Harry Freidman, 2 years old, of Williamsburg, was killed yesterday by a car of the De alb Avenue line in sight of his mother, from whom he ran few moments before to join playmates on the opposite side of the street. To extricate the child it was necessary to get a wrecking crew.

A crowd of excited women gathered around the car believing that the motorman, Herman Stutz, was responsible for the fatality. Stutz kept the mob back with a switching iron until a policeman and the wrecking crew arrived.

The child's mother seemed to become demented, and it was necessary to watch her so as to prevent her harming herself.

JAPAN MORE ACTIVE

Will Send a Larger Amount of Munitions to Russia.

The decision of the Japanese government, announced recently, to mobilize the industrial resource of the country to increase the output of arms and ammunition for her allies, is explained by Premier Okuma in an interview in the Kokumin Shimbun, one of the leading dailies of Tokyo.

"Russia has a great number of soldiers, but she lacks munitions and other war material," the Premier is quoted as saying. "England is in the same position. France alone among the Entente Powers is able to meet her own requirements.

"Japan now realizes that all the Allies must co-operate to defeat our common enemies, and has decided to give further assistance to the Allies. We have sent instructions to our ambassadors abroad to that effect."

MUSCOVITES RALLYING.

Dispatches from the eastern war zone show that the Czar is again on the offensive. The Russians have during the entire summer been fighting under great disadvantages. While the Germans have been supplied with an abundance of ammunition, the Muscovites have been compelled to retreat from place to place for want of the same. It is now learned that their only plan was blown up in April by German sympathizers. The Czar has, therefore, been simply fighting for time. Conditions, however, are improving and we may expect to see a more stubborn resistance shortly.

Lord Kitchener, summerizing the military situation in the British House of Lords yesterday said:

"The German armies appear almost to have shot their bolt. The Russian army is still intact. All the Germans can claim in the east is that at enormous sacrifice they have captured certain fortresses. Their advance in Russia, which at one time avenged five miles a day now, has diminished to less than one mile a day."

With forces estimated at more than 1,000,000 men, von Hindenburg is exerting every effort to take Vilna, Dvinsk and Riga and gain control of the Dvina River and the Petrograd railroad. The Russian defense has been so successful that on a wide front the defensive has been turned to an aggressive in which the Czar's troops are striking at Grodno, the Polish fortress evacuated before Hindenburg's initial advance.

Had any other of the European belligerents suffered the reverses which have befallen the Russian arms and lost territory as extensive as the Muscovite territory now in the hands of the enemy there would be good ground for assuming that the end of the struggle, so far as that particular nation was concerned, was in sight. But as the New York Journal of Commerce points out, the kingdom of the Czar is in a class to itself and is not to be considered in terms that would apply to any other country in Europe. Yielding only to the British Empire in superficial area, the Russian is the greatest compact empire on the face of the globe. It is larger than all North America, exceeding in area the whole of the United States, Alaska, Canada, Mexico, Central America, Cuba, Porto Rico, Haiti and other islands of the Caribbean It is larger by 1,800,000 square miles than the whole of South America; it is more than twice as big as Europe, three-fifths of the surface of which continent it occupies; it is half as big as all Asia, two-fifths of which it covers and its Asiatic possessions are three times as large as those of Great Britain. In fact, Russia lacks but ten degrees of stretching half way round the earth; it possesses one-sixth of the land area of the globe, and one twelfth of its inhabitants. In 1878-79 the subjects of the Czar numbered 96,000,000, in 1899 they had reached 129,000,000, and in 1912 they were 170,000,000—a gain of 33,000,000 in a single generation. Of this population eighty-five per cent. live on and by the soil and of a male population of 85,000,000 there are 32,000,000 of fighting age.

Measured with reference to this vast population and the vast extent of this collossal empire, the losses in men and territory so far suffered by the Muscovites are comparatively negligible as affecting their powers of resistance. Russia is not only unconquered, but practically unconquerable.

THE TIE OF THE LIP

When men started to build the tower of Babel we are told that they were all of one language (lip in the Hebrew). When their speech was confounded their enterprise fell to the ground and they scattered toward the different points of the compass. It is said that Austria is the most polyglot nation in the world. Many dialects are spoken in different sections of the country, and so long as these conditions exist the stability of the empire will be menaced.

The millions which enter the United States from other climes bring their language with them, retain it and import it to their children. Such families feed their minds almost exclusively upon foreign literature Strolls through parks in our larger cities show that a large percent of people read foreign newspapers, and it is said that in some of the younger towns in the western section of our country English is seldom heard, as the bulk of the population is composed of immigrants from other countries.

The Baltimore American in speaking of this says:

It is a well-known fact that as long as a subject people can keep its own tongue its assimilation in the body of the population of the conquering nation cannot be affected. Even up in Canada the contention for French schools has tended to preserve the French-Canadian as a distinct element in the population. The tongues as used by the various elements of the empire, has always been regarded as politically critical for the permanence of Austria-Hungary.

The tie of the tongue is the strongest known tie of race. The fact has been demonstrated in the startlingly loose adherence of a large section of the population of German derivity. After the war shall have closed the United States will be presented with the necessity for utterly destroying the factors that tend to retard the assimilation of elements of the population—German, French, English, Austrian or any other. To do this the German school must go. When an analysis of the situation in the country with respect to the slack loyalty of so many of the German element has been calmly made it will be disclosed that the tie of the tongue has been the controlling tie of loyalty to the homeland. The American spirit does not seek to destroy sentimental attachment to antecedent relations of race or nationality, but it does demand honest and complete loyalty to the land of adoption. And this it cannot sucure as long as schools are set apart for the teaching of children in other than the English tongue. It is well to have this in mind, as at the close of the war hatred for things English will create fanatical demand for the extension of public schools where the teaching is in the German language. All such schools must be wiped out.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM.

Declining to comply with a request from Joseph H. Choate, president, to appoint twenty North Carolina members of the National Security League for adequate preparedness for war, Governor Craig writes Mr. Choate that he does not believe the United States is in the slightest danger of attack from an outside enemy. He said that "in a spirit of righteousness to all men and just consideration to all nations, the diplomacy adopted by the President of the United States has won magnificently" and given this country a higher place than she would have had if her policy had been one of arbitrary dictation backed by force.

The Governor writes that the nations of Europe are straining all their energies to defend themselves in the present war and to perpetuate their existence, and "have no resources to send ships and armies 3,000 miles across the sea to attack the nation with more potential power than any on earth." He expresses the belief that, after this war is over, the world will be tired of war, and an era of peace will ensue,

He writes further: "In my opinion the President of the United States and his advisers have a proper conception of the situation, and are ready to urge Congress to adopt any measures necessary to provide for our defense and to assert in any way the rights and dignity o four country and of all its citizens. With great respect for our organization and for the ability and patriotism of the men who are promoting it, I think it is unnecessary, and may tend to engender in this country a spirit of militarism that would burden our people with tremendous expense for war equipment and create a desire for war rather than a hope that we be at peace with the world."

Governor Craig has sized up the situation in a sensible and convincing manner.

Hyman Kline, 30 years old, was killed at Frostburg, Mad., last night, when his automobile upset in making a turn. He lost control on the grade, the brakes refusing to work, and was going about 40 miles an hour. The machine overturned, jammed Kline beneath it. His skull was crushed.

F. B. Nicholson, 21 years old, of Dickinson, Md., horrified several hundred visitors in the vicinity of the Boardwalk and Tennessee avenues, Atlantic City, shortly after noon yesterday by leaping from window on the seventh floor of the Hotel Alamac. A dispatch from Maasluis, Holland, says: "Heavy firing can be heard in a westerly direction. Maasluis and the Hook of Holland are on the North Sea to the West of Rotterdam.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals in Richmond yesterday, affirmed the action of the United States District Court at Danville, in awarding C. S. Cook, administrator of W. M. Poteat, damages in the sum of $10,000 for the death of Poteat, who was struck and instantly killed by a passenger train of the Southern Railway Company, near Fall Creek Station, a little over two years ago.

Declaring that the United States is nearer intervention in Mexico than ever before and that the administration's policy of "watchful waiting" was one that neither "watched nor waited" former President Taft arrived yesterday at Los Angeles, Cal., on his fifty-eight birthday anniversary. "I am not anxious to go to war with Mexico," he continued. "as I know what it entails, but I am afraid we will have to act."

The Rev. B. H. Shadduck, pastor of the leading Methodist Church of Charleston, W. Va., who has been the leading figure in the anti-vice campaign in that city, is to become chief of police in order to prove his assertion that he would be able to rid the city of all vice with a quartet of police to assist him. Mayor George F. Breece took him at his word and offered him the appointment for as long a time as the job would require. The minister has accepted.

Announcement is made in Marseilles, France of the discovery by Prof. Rota, an Italian scientist, of an apparatus which defies gravitation and which may revolutionize aviation. The apparatus constructed by Prof. Rota is in the form of a small square box which is capable of passing through the air at an altitude of from 500 to 1,000 yards while supporting weight. The influence of Hertzian waves is utilized, and under certain conditions the apparatus is not affected by the wind.

Miss Ray Enid Tate, of Farington, has been missing from her home for three weeks, according to a report made to the Richmond police, yesterday by her father, R. E. Tate. The last word received from the young woman was a telephone message sent to her father from Richmond and asking that he meet her at Ashland, to convey her to her home some ten miles distant. The father, brother and several other relatives of Miss Tate met the Richmond and Chesapeake Bay car at Ashland, but the young woman did not appear.

America's billion-dollar loan to Britain and France seems to be well on the way to actual accomplishment, according to New York bankers familiar with the pledge secured by members of the Anglo-French financial commission during their five day stay in this country. Announcement at this time that the success of the loan was assured would be, these bankers thought, decidedly premature; but there was every indication, in their opinion, that the commission's work thus far met with a degree of success that had fully equaled their expectations.

That two negro men, masked and heavily armed separated Miss Berthat Whittaker, of Newport News, from her escort, John Butler, Sunday evening; one of them taking the young woman into bushes, while the other carried young Butler in another direction, is the story told by the girl and others connected with the affair. Miss Whittaker's screams brought John Parrish, a boarder at the home of Butler's mother, whom the young woman had been visiting, to the scene, but the negroes made good their escape. Miss Whittaker stated that she was not harmed by the negro, although her clothes were badly torn and she was wet, muddy and bedraggled.

Captain Frank Smith, State accountant, has returned to Richmond from his trip last week to Hopewell, in Prince George county. He said that three men had been shot within the short time he was at the powder plant town, and that conditions there were desperate in the extreme. An automobile hold-up, in which one woman and ten men were robbed in a negro settlement, numerous robberies and shooting affrays helped to enliven the day's scenes in the vicinity of Hopewell.

In a jealous rage, Fannie Cook, a negress, opened fire upon her beau, "Bud" Wiltz, and a negro girl accompanying him at a campmeeting at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, in the southeastern part of Lancaster county, on Sunday last. She missed both her lover and her rival, but one of the bullets struck Berkeley Gaskins, a young negro, in the neck, Gaskins died from the wound. Other negroes whipped out pistols and began firing and there was pandemonium about the campmeeting for half an hour. The Cook woman was arrested.

SPOTTING SUBMRAINES

How British Patrol Boats Locate German Destroyers

London, Sept. 16—The telltale wake they leave behind is responsible for the losses of German submarines, according to the Daily News which adds:

"The losses have been more than formidable; they are irretrievable."

The submarine leaves a perculan trail on the surface marked by al bubbles. Auxiliary boats follow this curious wave, which seamen soon learn to recognize, although it is no easy to distinguish in rough weather.

Twenty-three hundred trawlers now are engaged in the submarine hunt; constantly patrolling the waters around the British Isles. The writer in the Daily News describes standing on the seacoast watching through his binoculars, three destroyers, which were steaming at half speed, two abreast and one behind.

"Suddenly," he writes, 'the rear destroyer spurted forward and gathered speed, foam dashing over her bow while the others zigzagged and guns crackled. Soon the firing ceased and the destroyers steamed on again as before. When the next tide came in the water was coated with oil."

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 50 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment, and certifying the same to the next General Assembly.

1. Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section fifty of article four of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section fifty, article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may originate in either house, to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.

No bill shall become a law unless prior to its passage it has been—

(a) Referred to a committee of each house, considered by such committee in session, and reported;

(b) Printed by the house in which it originated, prior to its passage therein;

(c) Read at length on three different calendar days in each house; and unless,

(d) A yea and nay vote has been taken in each house upon its final passage, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal, and a majority of those voting, which shall include at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, recorded in the affirmative.

And only in the manner required in sub-division (d) of this section shall an amendment to a bill by one house be concurred in by the other, or a conference report be adopted by either house, or either house discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill and consider the same as if reported; provided, that the printing and reading, or either, required in sub-division (b and c) of this section, may be dispensed with in a bill to codify the laws of the State, and in any case of emergency by a vote of four-fifths of the members voting in each house taken by the yeas and nays, the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal; provided further, that no bill which creates or established a new office, or which creates, continues or revives a debt or charge or makes, continues or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, or discharges, or commutes any claim or demand of the State, or which imposes, continues or revives a tax, shall be passed except by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the members elected to each house, the vote to be by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal. Every law imposing, continuing or reviving a tax shall specifically state such tax, and no law shall be construed as so stating such tax, which requires a reference to any other law or any other tax. The presiding officer of each house shall, in the presence of the house over which he presides, sign every bill which has been passed by both houses and duly enrolled. Immediately before this is done, all other business being suspended, the title of the bill shall be publicly read. The fact of the signing shall be entered on the journal.
